General Provisions

Admission for study

Admission requirements are governed by the current study regulations (1st of August 2025) for the doctoral programme «Dr. scient.med.». The study regulations as well as additional information are published on the website of the UFL: www.ufl.li

Application/process

Receipt of the application shall be confirmed in writing following a formal check of the admission requirements. Applicants accepted for courses of study will be notified immediately after the completion of the selection procedure. If there are insufficient applicants, the UFL reserves the right not to implement the study programme. In this case, payments already made will be reimbursed.

Programme changes

The UFL reserves the right to make changes with regard to the structure and content of the study programme, as well as the selection and employment of lecturers.

Tuition fee

The following fees are due for registration and participation in a degree programme at UFL:

- The registration fee will be invoiced on confirmation of definitive acceptance to the degree programme.
- The tuition fee is divided among the semesters (semester fee) of the standard duration of study as specified in the study regulations.
- If the duration of study is extended beyond the minimum duration specified in the study regulations, a fee for the extension of the duration of study is to be paid.
- An examination fee is to be paid after the doctoral examination.

Fees for the doctoral programme in Medical Sciences (Dr. scient. med.)

Registration fee: CHF 1‘250.–

Tuition fee: CHF 28‘500.– for the minimum duration of 6 semesters

- For semesters 1–4, CHF 6‘500.– will be invoiced prior to beginning of the respective semester.
- For semesters 5–6, CHF 1‘000.– will be invoiced prior to the beginning of the respective semester.
- Semester fee from the 7th semester onwards: CHF 1,000.00 per additional semester
- One-time examination fee: CHF 500.–

The relevant invoices, together with terms of payment, will be sent in a timely manner. Fees will also fall due even if a participant admitted onto the study programme fails to participate in it (registration fee) or discontinues studies prematurely (semester fee).

Payment by instalments is possible, whereby additional processing fees apply.

Deregistration

A student who without reasonable excuse fails to attend the course of study may be deregistered by the UFL after a written warning. In the event of deregistration, the tuition fees for each semester commenced shall be owed in full. If students wish to discontinue their programme of study prematurely, they should apply for deregistration in writing at the latest 30 days prior to the commencement of the semester.

Liability

Students are responsible for their own insurance. The UFL accepts no liability in the event of the absence of, or insufficient, insurance cover.

Legal venue

The legal venue is Vaduz and the location for the fulfilment of contractual obligations is Triesen. Liechtenstein law is applicable.

I hereby definitively register for the doctoral programme in Medical Sciences (Dr. scient. med.) of the Private University in the Principality of Liechtenstein in accordance with the study regulations in force at the time of commencement of studies. With my signature, I acknowledge the conditions stated above and in the information provided on the website and engage to pay the invoices in due time.
